

ST. THOMAS LAW REVIEW

VOLUME 13

WINTER 2001

NUMBER 2

GENERAL ISSUE

- Maritime Law Uniformity and Federalism After Yamaha V
and DOHSA Amendment: For Whom the Bell
Tolls?.....Attilio M. Costabel 445
- Too Young to Understand? Extending Equal Access to All Children in Public Schools Regardless of Age .....David Woodcock 491
- Administrative Pitfalls of Litigating Under the Florida
Civil Rights Act.....Kenneth M. Curtin 523
- Abstention in the Federal Courts: A Suggested Bifurcated
Standard of Review to Create Procedural Reliance
Where States and Localities Regulate Constitutionally Protected Activity ..... Carl E. Brody, Jr. 539
- The South Carolina Secession Statement of 1860 and the One Florida Initiative: The Limits of a Historical Analogy and the Possibility of Racial Reconciliation.....Martin D. Carcieri 577

ESSAY

- Legal Ethics & Religion:
An Oxymoron? ..... Honorable Helen "Ginger" Berrigan 609

COMMENT

- Alternatives in Fighting Street Gangs: Criminal Anti-Gang
Ordinances v. Public Nuisance Laws ..... Silvia Perez 619

