

ST. THOMAS LAW REVIEW

VOLUME 4

SPRING 1992

TABLE OF CONTENTS

TRIBUTES

- In Memory of the Honorable
Eugene Paul Spellman Dexter Douglass 1
- On Remembering Judge Eugene P. Spellman:
A Different Vision Ira J. Kurzban 5
and Irwin P. Stotzky

ARTICLES

- Taxation of Notional Principal Contracts:
Implications for U.S. Persons Myra J. Schlosberg 17
- The Jury Trial in the Criminal
Context: The Link Between the Defendant and the Community Alfredo Garcia 81
- HIV-AIDS and Governmental Control of Information: International
Denial of Human Rights Michael L. Clozen 107
and Scott H. Isaacman

ESSAYS

- The Fourteenth Amendment: Original
Intent and Modern Possibility Donald E. Lively 125
- European Unity in the Nineties—
A Mirage? Thomas Oppermann 141
- Say It Ain't So, Lewis—The Agony of
a New Legal Method Professor James F. Fagan, Jr. 149

NOTES

The Jurisprudence of Affirmative Action: Equality in Abstraction and Application	Alec Anthony Izzo	161
Liability of Blood Banks for the Transmission of HIV-AIDS.....	Martin B. Kofsky	185
Should Defense Counsel Interview Plaintiffs' Treating Physician Ex Parte: Physician-Patient Privilege v. Discovery	Diane Davis	207