

WHO'S NEXT? (AND WHAT WILL WE LEAVE THEM?) SAFEGUARDING THE EARTH FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS

March 26, 2010

AGENDA

- 8:00 a.m. Registration and Coffee
- 8:30 a.m. Welcome ~ Leticia Diaz, Dean, Barry University School of Law
- 8:45 a.m. Opening Remarks ~ Sr. Patricia Siemen, O.P., Esquire, Executive Director, Center for Earth Jurisprudence
- 9:00 a.m. Future Generations of Humans ~ Keith R. Fountain, Esquire, Director of Protection, The Nature Conservancy, Florida Chapter
Demonstrating the connection between human health and the health of ecosystems
- 9:50 a.m. Break
- 10:00 a.m. Future Generations of Ecosystems ~ Charles Lee, Director of Advocacy, Audubon of Florida, and James A. Sellen, M.S.P., Executive Vice President of Planning & Design, MSCW, Inc.
Exploring efforts to balance Central Florida's development with preserving its wild spaces
- 11:30 a.m. Lunch Break
- 12:15 p.m. Keynote Address ~ Alyson Craig Flournoy, Professor of Law and Director, Environmental & Land Use Law Program, University of Florida Levin School of Law
Making the case for a National Environmental Legacy Act, based upon considerations of climate change, natural capital, and intergenerational justice
- 1:15 p.m. Closing Remarks ~ Sr. Patricia Siemen, O.P., Esquire, Executive Director, Center for Earth Jurisprudence
- 1:30 p.m. Adjourn

