What Is the Cancellation Policy for United Airlines?

United Airlines offers different cancellation policies depending on the type of ticket purchased. Here's a simple breakdown:

• Refundable Tickets: These allow you to cancel at any time and receive a full refund back to your original payment method.

• Non-Refundable Tickets: Typically, these tickets can be canceled, but instead of a cash refund, United provides travel credits for future flights.

• Basic Economy Tickets: These are almost always non-refundable and come with stricter rules, meaning you cannot cancel or change the flight once booked.

• Additionally, United Airlines offers a 24-hour risk-free cancellation policy. You can cancel your ticket for a full refund within 24 hours of booking, provided the departure date is at least 7 days away.

Is Basic Economy Fully Refundable?

No, Basic Economy tickets are generally not fully refundable. Once purchased, they are typically non-changeable and non-refundable, except under special circumstances (such as involuntary cancellations by the airline). If you need flexibility, it's best to purchase a standard economy or refundable fare.
